No 4. October 2015 (Annual Dinner & AGM edition)

Book now for the Queensland Branch Annual Dinner - Monday 23 November 2015

It's Annual Dinner time again and we want you to be there. Distinguished Professor Judith Clements AC has agreed to be our guest speaker for the evening. It promises to be a grand Gala event.

The Dinner will on Monday 23 November at The Pavilion, Alan Border Field, 1 Greg Chappell Street, Albion commencing from 7pm. Ample parking is available.

Distinguished Professor Judith Clements is a prostate and ovarian cancer researcher in the Institute of Health and Biomedical Innovation, QUT based at the Translational Research Institute on the Princess Alexandra Hospital Biomedical Precinct. She is Scientific Director of the Australian Prostate Cancer Research Centre-Queensland and was the recipient of the Queensland Women in Technology Biotech Outstanding Achievement Award for 2012. Judith will touch on her life and achievements in what promises to be a most interesting and stimulating after-dinner speech.

The Annual Dinner is black tie and priced at $93 per person. You will enjoy a three course dinner, tea and coffee, a complimentary bottle of red and white wine on each table and drinks and canapés on arrival from 7pm at the "Picket Fence Café". Plus there is the rare opportunity to hear a remarkably successful Australian in Judith Clements AC - recognised in this year's Queen's Birthday honours.

An information flyer with an RSVP form is included as an insert with this Communiqué or can be downloaded from our website.

Prior to the dinner we will conduct our Annual General Meeting at the same venue, commencing at 6:15 pm.
