SA BRANCH NEWSLETTER, February 2023

The year is well and truly underway!

During January, our Student Citizenship Awards Selection and Assessment Panel met to start preparations for this year's program, including the production of an updated brochure, and we held a successful 'Celebration of Australia Day' lunch.

Coming up this month we have our Annual General Meeting and our first Honours Fellowship luncheon meeting for the year.

As usual we have some very interesting speakers lined up. On Thursday 23 February the Fellowship lunch group will hear from Elaine Attwood AM, and at the AGM you will hear from our 2022 South Australian Student Citizens of the Year.

If you haven't already sent an RSVP for the AGM, could I recommend that you use the free 'Humanitix' link to respond – this ticketing platform makes it much easier for our Events Committee members to track and record attendees.

Our regional groups are also gearing up for some interesting meetings, and I encourage all members in the respective regions to attend if you are able.

On behalf of all SA Branch members, I would like to congratulate everyone who has received an award in the 2023 Australia Day Honours List.

A representative of the SA Branch will attend each of the investiture ceremonies, and we look forward to meeting you at one of our events.

If you have joined the Order of Australia Association and wish to purchase a professional name badge, you can find an Order Form on our website:

COMPLEMENTARY AWARDS FOR SOUTH AUSTRALIAN STUDENTS

The Student Citizenship Awards program is conducted annually as the flagship program of the SA Branch of the Order of Australia Association. Senior students are nominated by their schools, and selected from submissions assessed against four criteria – contributions to the school and/or community; leadership and citizenship; skills in organisation, management and communication; and concern for the well-being of disadvantaged others in need and/or contributions to the development and/or sustainability of the environment or community. Our Awards are separate from, but proudly presented in collaboration with, the Governor's Civics Awards for Schools.

Student Citizenship Awards

The SA Branch Assessment and Selection Panel met on 17 January to review and update the information, communication and selection processes for the 2023 Student Citizenship Awards.

As a result of this productive meeting, the Information Brochure has been updated, the timeline established for the nominations to be received and assessed, and details about the preparation of citations, printing of certificates and presentations agreed upon for 2023.

Our website has been updated with the 2023 brochure and nomination form, and communication with the schools promoting the 2023 Student Citizenship Awards will commence later this month. Nominations are due no later than Monday 31 July (Week 2 of School Term 3).

For more information refer to:

https://theorderofaustralia.asn.au/sa/school-awards/

Governor's Civics Awards

The Governor's Civics Awards in Schools program is continuing in 2023.

The Reference Committee met with Her Excellency recently to review the judging process, outcomes and recommendations from 2022. The Committee also discussed professional learning plans for teachers in 2023, and the details for the primary and secondary award categories.

As a member of the Reference Committee for these Civics Awards, the Convenor of the Student Citizenship Awards (SA Branch, Order of Australia Association) is able to ensure that the direction and purpose of our Student Citizenship Awards are complementary to and congruent with the Governor's Civics Awards for Schools.

STUDENT CITIZENSHIP AWARDS

In addition to the students selected for 'With Distinction' (Top 10) and 'Highly Commended' awards, a further 17 nominees were acknowledged by the SA Branch Assessment and Selection Panel as being worthy of formal recognition. At the at the Hewitson Theatre at STARplex in Gawler on Monday 12 December, Paul Rosenzweig OAM JP presented certificates to two members of the Blakes Crossing Christian College Year 12 graduating class.

AMBER MATHIESON
Blakes Crossing Christian College

In a major initiative for her fellow citizens, Amber was a leader in the establishment of a community garden at Blakes Crossing.

The citation on Amber's certificate includes the following statement:

Her involvement included liaising and engaging with various stake-holders in the project.

This included those who provided funding, the design of the garden and the wishes of those who lived in the neighbourhood. A notable act of citizenship by a young person who was still a school student.

Congratulations Amber!

ALEX RICHARDSON
Blakes Crossing Christian College

Alex is a positive role-model, mentor, performer and production member in the musical life of the College.

The citation on Alex's certificate reads as follows:

He shows growing confidence in his ability in these areas and has been involved successfully in three recent musical events.

His skills in communication both orally and in writing are exemplary and contribute markedly to his ability to lead.

There are benefits too for his local community because these musical performances extend well beyond the College.

Congratulations Alex!

'CELEBRATION OF AUSTRALIA DAY'

Saturday 21 January 2023

We held our annual 'Celebration of Australia Day' luncheon at the Arkaba Hotel in January, with 40 members and guests in attendance.

Our Guest Speaker was Mr Michael Weatherald OAM, known widely as 'Mick' or 'Weathers', who presented a talk entitled, "Mentor of People, Sport Coach, the Meat Industry, and a Bali Bombing insight story".

Michael has been the Managing Director of Consolidated Provincial Meat Group Ltd for some 50 years. He is well known as a sports guru, administrator and 'A' grade coach in South Australia, and was honoured in 2012 for his service to cricket and Australian Rules football.

Branch Deputy Chairman Noel Hender OAM BEM reports: "The speaker was interesting and presented a number of stories based upon his sporting and career experiences, culminating with an account of the call received from son Tim who had been caught up in the Bali bombing and made the first (early morning) call to Australia advising of the disaster".

Michael Weatherald was awarded the Medal of the Order of Australia in the 2012 Queen's Birthday Honours List, "For service to the sports of cricket and Australian Rules football as a coach and administrator". He received the insignia of the OAM at Government House Adelaide from His Excellency Rear-Admiral Kevin Scarce AC CSC RANR, the 34th Governor of South Australia.

HER LATE MAJESTY QUEEN ELIZABETH II (1926-2022)

On Monday 6 February we will observe the 71st anniversary of the day in 1952 when Princess Elizabeth, as heir presumptive, acceded to the throne as Queen Elizabeth II, the fourth monarch of the House of Windsor.

Then on Friday 2 June this year we will observe the 70th anniversary of the Coronation of Queen Elizabeth II in the Abbey Church of St Peter in Westminster Abbey on 2 June 1953, when Her Majesty became Head of the Commonwealth and Queen Regnant of seven independent Commonwealth countries (the UK, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Pakistan and Ceylon).

To commemorate Queen Elizabeth's ascent to the throne in 1953, special issues of coronation postage stamps were made throughout the Commonwealth – including stamps for 61 British Colonies.

Sarawak, on the island of Borneo, issued this special 10-cent stamp, printed by De La Rue & Company in black and deep violet-blue (Thomas de la Rue had been printing postage stamps since 1855).

Two of the most notable attractions in Mount Gambier – Umpherston Sinkhole and Sunken Garden (with its resident brush-tail possums), and the stunning Blue Lake (which sits in the crater of a dormant volcano so it is not a sinkhole, as compared to Little Blue Lake which actually is a sinkhole).

Regional Group News

South East Regional Group. The next meeting will be in Mount Gambier on Friday 24 February – at the Mount Gambier RSL, 16 Sturt Street, 12 for 12.30 pm, with Dr Jerry Leach AM as the guest speaker. Mount Gambier's Dr Leach was made a Member of the Order of Australia in the 2022 Queen's Birthday honours list for his significant service to the forestry industry, tertiary education, and to the community.

Riverland and Mallee Regional Group. The group will meet on Sunday 16 April – further details to follow.

Yorke Peninsula Regional Group: The next luncheon meeting will be in Ardrossan on Sunday 30 April – at the Ardrossan Hotel/Motel (commonly known as the 'Top Pub'), 36 First Street, 12 for 12.30 pm. This will again follow the 'interview' format, to allow members and guests to learn more about their fellow honours recipients.

Fleurieu Regional Group: The next half-yearly luncheon of the Fleurieu Regional Group will be on Friday 5 May.

Barossa, Gawler & District and Mid-North Regional Group: At the meeting held on Sunday 4 December, the opportunity was taken to informally discuss the proposed formation of a regional group of honours recipients in the areas encompassing the Barossa, Mid-North and Gawler and district communities. Regional Groups Coordinator Ken Coventry OAM JP will be following up on this to see if there is community interest in forming such a group.

Eyre Peninsula Regional Group: Ken Coventry will also be coordinating with local honours recipients regarding the possibility of establishing a regional group based around Port Lincoln and Lower Eyre.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE
Geelong, Victoria – 18-21 May 2023

A reminder that the 2023 National Conference will be held in Geelong. The theme is 'Working Together-Building the Future'. His Excellency General the Honourable David Hurley AC DSC (ret'd), Governor-General of the Commonwealth of Australia, and Her Excellency Mrs Linda Hurley will be attending various events.

The program includes the National Annual General Meeting and Members' Forum on Saturday 20 May.

VALE
Robert Keith Foreman OAM (1942-2022)

With sadness we announce the passing of a former member of the SA Branch, Bob Foreman OAM, who passed away peacefully in his sleep at the Flinders Medical Centre on 23 December 2022, aged 80.

Bob had a strong connection to aviation and youth development in South Australia. He was awarded the Medal of the Order of Australia in the 2000 Queen's Birthday Honours List, "For service to youth, particularly through the Air Training Corps, and to gliding".

Bob was a member of the team which ran the first ATC Gliding Camp at Gawler in 1969. He was instrumental in having the Air Force Association in SA provide funds to purchase a two-seat training Motor Glider. In supporting the Glider training program over some four decades, he helped many Cadets fly their first solo flight – and most of these went on to fly in the Defence Force, with civilian airlines or as recreational pilots.

Rob Moore OAM MRAeS, of the Adelaide Branch Committee of the Royal Aeronautical Society, said of Bob: "His devotion to the Gliding section was unparalleled". As a member of the Air Training Corps, Bob was largely responsible for the restoration and maintenance of a Link Trainer flight simulator for use by Air Force Cadets.

Link Trainer 'A13-123' is a WW2-era Instrument Flight Rules (IFR) simulator for a piston-engine aircraft with one engine. It is essentially a machine resembling an aircraft which imitates an aircraft's movements on three axes.

The Link Trainer holds a significant place in aviation history – it was the first true flight simulator, and provided safe training to hundreds of thousands of student pilots worldwide during the 1930s and 1940s.

Edwin A Link of Binghamton, New York, with expertise in air-driven pianos and pipe organs, developed a 'pilot trainer' in 1928 – during the Great Depression when flying lessons became too costly – using organ parts and compressed air. Organ bellows and a motor provided the means for the trainer, mounted on a pedestal, to pitch, roll, dive and climb as the student 'flew' it with a closed canopy, with no external visibility.

His 'pilot maker' was patented in 1931: Link sold 100 trainers in 1932, and then in 1934 the US Army Air Force ordered trainers to prepare pilots for flying mail flights by night, flying only by instruments. By the late 1930s, Link Trainers were being used by some 35 countries. During World War 2, it is estimated that some half a million pilots received flying training in the Link Trainers.

Between 1938 and 1957, the Royal Australian Air Force acquired 161 Link Trainers of various models. They were all allocated the Link Trainer stores number 'A13', part of the 'A' series allocated to aircraft – although 'A13' had been avoided up to this point. The Link Trainers continued in use until 1965, after which some remained with units of the Air Training Corps (now the Australian Air Force Cadets) or as RAAF display items.

Trainer 'A13-123' was acquired by the RAAF in 1945: after service with the RAAF and Qantas, in 1958 it was transferred to No 13 Flight (Penfield) of the South Australian Air Training Corps. It was located at various sites until 2003 when it was relocated to Torrens Training Depot under the auspices of the RAAF Association.

FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM 2023

Members of the Order of Australia and other honours recipients, partners and friends are invited to share in the fostering of fellowship, in an informal setting.

Our honours recipients fellowship luncheons will commence again on Thursday 23 February 2023 at the Naval, Military and Air Force Club at 111 Hutt Street in Adelaide.

The speaker will be Elaine Attwood AM – "From There to Here; a Consumer Advocate's Journey".

Lunch guests should arrive at 12 noon so that any necessary COVID registration requirements may be complied with – this relates to our own Order of Australia Association requirements as well as any site requirements of the Naval, Military and Air Force Club.

Lunch commences at 12.30 pm, the guest speaker begins at 1.15, and the event will conclude by 2 pm. A dress code applies at the NMAF Club: smart day wear for ladies, and long trousers and jacket for men. To RSVP please contact:

ELAINE ATTWOOD AM

Elaine was appointed a Member of the Order of Australia in the 2011 Queen's Birthday Honours List: "For service to the community, particularly women, through executive roles with the National Council of Women, and as a contributor and advocate for consumer rights, human nutrition and health care policy development".

Elaine and her husband Brian founded the Hyperactivity Association of SA in 1975, which operated until 1990. She has been a part-time lecturer at the SA College of Advanced Education, Croydon College of TAFE and Flinders University, speaking on ADHD, and food and labelling. She was a member of the NHMRC Working Party on food intolerance in children, and member and acting chair of the Women and Children's Hospital Consumer Consultancy Committee. Elaine has also been a member of the SA Ministerial Advisory Committee on Agricultural and Veterinary chemicals and the SA Food Hygiene Implementation Committee.

Elaine recently retired as a member of Consumers SA's executive committee, COPOLCO (the consumer policy arm of the International Standards Organisation) and the Essential Services Commission of SA Expert Advisory Committee.

She was a joint awardee of the 2020 International Standards Organisation Simon Holland Award – the first consumer advocate to have been awarded that honour. She has recently been awarded Life Membership of the National Council of Women of SA.

Among the guests at our Christmas Morning Tea last December was Elaine Attwood AM, who will be guest speaker at the honours recipients fellowship luncheon at the Naval, Military and Air Force Club in Adelaide on Thursday 23 February 2023.

The Order of Australia Association, South Australia Branch

2022 ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING
Saturday 25 February 2023

We are privileged to have two Student Citizens of the Year as our guest speakers for our Annual General Meeting at the Arkaba Hotel on Saturday 25 February – Callum Barrott-Walsh from Cardijn College and Jordan Norman from Urrbrae Agricultural High School.

The citation on Callum's 'With Distinction' certificate reads as follows:

An excellent leader through several committees and roles, Callum has accomplished many significant achievements which have positively benefited the College and wider community. These include participating in the UN Youth (Australia) State Conference, addressing issues such as climate change, refugees and homelessness.

He has volunteered for and assisted with several fundraising events and activities supporting Fred's Van soup kitchen, St Vincent De Paul Christmas hamper appeal and the Hutt St Walk a Mile. He was successful in winning the Premier's ANZAC Spirit School Prize Competition and the Muriel Matters Award, recognising self-initiative and valued citizenship qualities.

The citation on Jordan's 'With Distinction' certificate reads as follows:

Throughout his secondary years Jordan has made an outstanding contribution to the Urrbrae and wider community.

A caring and compassionate leader and mentor for the younger students, Jordan has been a trusted and highly valued School Captain in 2022.

His talents have been widely recognised from his many school achievements and community service including SRC President and Governing Council representative, the Plant Club and Barn Market, the Environmental Focus Group, and many other conservation and landcare projects.

Coronation Medals

A Brief History, Part 7

Last year we marked the 70th anniversary of the day in 1952 when Princess Elizabeth, as heir presumptive, acceded to the throne as Queen Elizabeth II, the fourth monarch of the House of Windsor.

Queen Elizabeth became Head of the Commonwealth and Queen Regnant of seven independent Commonwealth countries (the UK, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Pakistan and Ceylon).

Medals have long been awarded by a sovereign as a personal souvenir at the time of their coronation or on the jubilee of their accession to the throne.

This tradition dates from the coronation of King Edward VI in 1547, when the first official medals to commemorate the coronation of a British sovereign were distributed. King William IV released such medals for his coronation in 1831, as also did Queen Victoria in 1838.

These early medals (also referred to as medallions, medallets or commemorative coins) were simple souvenirs, and were not intended for wear.

King Edward VIII Coronation Medallet (1937)

King George V died at Sandringham House in Norfolk just before midnight on 20 January 1936, aged 70. He was succeeded by his eldest son the Prince of Wales, Prince Edward of York (unmarried at that time) – who acceded to the throne as Edward VIII, King of the United Kingdom and the Dominions of the British Empire, and Emperor of India.

King Edward VIII was the second monarch of the House of Windsor.

King Edward's coronation ceremony was scheduled by the Coronation Committee and the Duke of Norfolk to occur at Westminster Abbey on 12 May 1937. However, the ceremony did not go ahead because of a constitutional crisis which led to the King's abdication on 11 December 1936.

An official Coronation Medal was designed but was never struck. Numerous coronation souvenirs including commemorative medallets bearing Edward's face or monogram were produced in 1936 and 1937 for the proposed coronation that never took place.

As a result of the cancellation, preparations began for the coronation of King George VI on 12May 1937.

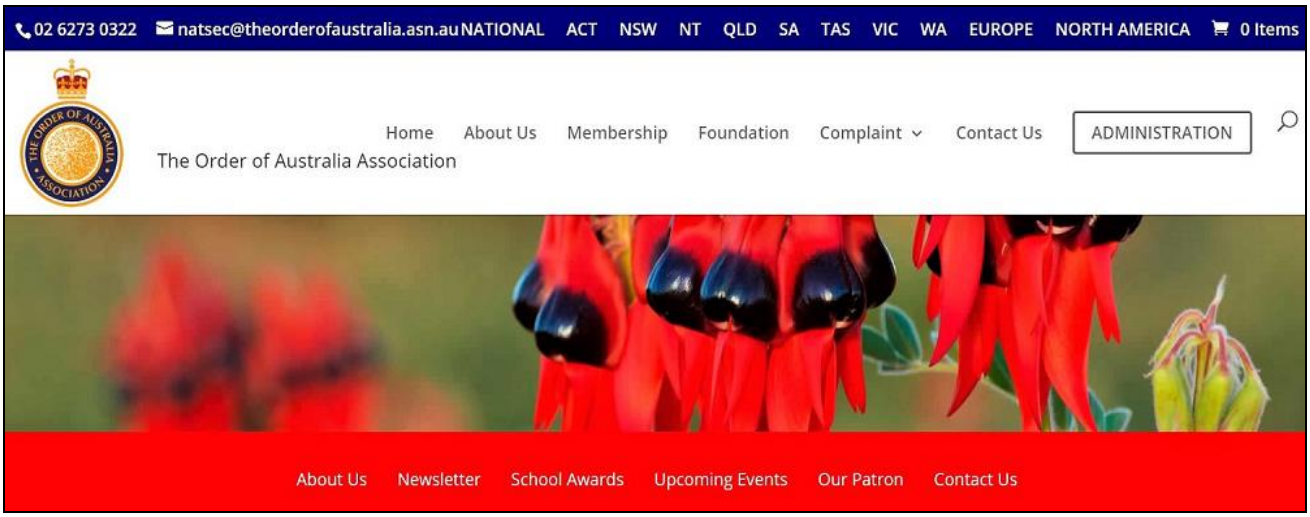

This commemorative medallet was produced in 1937, in gilded metal, 26 mm in diameter. The obverse bears the crowned bust of King Edward VIII facing right and the title "Edward VIII King and Emperor". The reverse features an allegorical figure of Britannia holding a crown, with the River Thames, St Paul's Cathedral and a battleship in the foreground, with the title "Crowned A.D. 1937".
